This charming villa, located on a generous plot of 577 square meters within a private development, is much more than just a home; it is a refuge where every corner tells a story, with different environments to enjoy depending on the season of the year. With 261 square meters built and distributed over three floors, it offers a home full of light and warmth, perfect for creating unforgettable memories with family and friends. The heart of this home is its private pool, an oasis where sunny days invite fun and relaxation. Surrounded by artificial grass so that maintenance is minimal and the edge adorned with simulated natural stones, it becomes...(Ask for More Details!)
