This beautiful property is located on 1 of the most sought-after golf resorts in the area. With its quiet location, here you can enjoy the Spanish climate and the nature that the immediate area has to offer. Not least, this breathtaking location is just a few minutes by cheek from several major cities, each with its qualities and attractions. The area's beautiful sandy beaches can also be reached with a short drive. At the golf resort itself, there are several bars, restaurants and small specialty shops. The property itself is located in a gated urbanisation that is only accessible to residents and this is provided with parking. ...(Ask for More Details!)
