This inviting Quadro-style house from 2006 offers many of the features most sought after by holiday home buyers: generous indoor and outdoor space, a flexible floor plan, plenty of sunlight and a location close to everyday conveniences and the many experiences the Costa Blanca coast has to offer. Layout of the property: The home offers two bedrooms – one conveniently located on the ground floor, and the other upstairs with an en-suite bathroom. There is also a second bathroom on the ground floor. The kitchen has ample storage and is open to the spacious living room, which even has the potential to be partly converted into a third bedroom if...(Ask for More Details!)
